

FACTORIES CORPORATION OF JAMAICA LIMITED

35TH

ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

It's our Anniversary!!! 35 years of supporting the productive sector through the provision of space. And what better way to celebrate than to thank the people who continue to make it possible for FCJ to be the island's leading provider of space, YOU the staff. Like in previous years, this year's celebration began with a month filled with excitement and giveaways. This anniversary is geared towards celebrating the achievements of FCJ throughout the years highlighting some of the organisation's longest-serving staff members and reminiscing on fun FCJ memories.

Spearheaded by the Welfare Committee together with the assistance of the Human Resources and Administration and the Marketing and Communication Departments, the staff's WhatsApp group was kept buzzing with daily trivias about company stats, the major projects, and identifying long-serving staff members in old photographs.

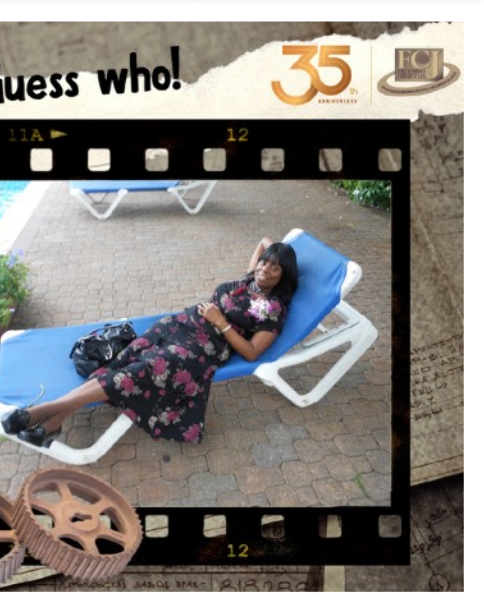

Staff testimonial videos produced by the Marketing and Communications Dept. highlighted how the staff felt about the organisation. The most common responses were that FCJ provides a family-like atmosphere and the positive bond that they have with their team members. In addition to this, many staff members are grateful for the opportunities FCJ has given them in providing for their families and achieving some of their goals.

October was also the month Jamaica celebrated National Heroes Day. The Welfare committee also felt it was necessary to celebrate our FCJ heroes. Staff members were requested to submit their nominees for the various categories created and then everyone would vote for the winner in that category.

MacGyver Award – Yohan Grant

Super Snacker – Shantal Brown

Silver Lining – Collecting for Karen Prince

Rookie of the Year – Andawailey Goffe

Energizer Bunny – Michelle Stewart

Early Bird – Maxine Lindo

Busy Bee – Collecting for Carmen Lewis

Oshean Campbell collecting for Travelling Medic – Althea Thompson

A special Unsung Hero's award was also given to Head Office Security, Jamar Jackson. This was in recognition of his helpfulness.

These winners were announced at an official cake cutting ceremony held at the Head Office. The event was live streamed via Teams to staff members. Other cake cutting ceremonies were held at Garmex Free Zone and the Scrap Metal location at Spanish Town Road.

The publishing of FCJ's 35th Anniversary Gleaner Supplement on October 26, 2022 capped off the month-long celebration. Some of the features carried were articles on two of our long-serving staff members, Dexter Hunter and Linton 'Rudeboy' Stewart, our HOPE poster-girl Amelia Amos, longest-serving clients, projects and more. If you have not seen it yet, get a copy.

On behalf of the Marketing and Communications Department, thank you Team FCJ for another successful year.

Fashionista Award – Dara Smith decides to share with fellow nominee, Oshean Campbell

FCJ veterans, April Jones, Maxine Lindo and Nathaniel Landells share the cake cutting ceremony .